RE: Brooke Harrison
Intern: Summer 2017

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is a reference for Brooke Harrison, who is interning at Marvel Entertainment, LLC, during the summer of 2017. Brooke is a great intern and everyone enjoys working with her. She performs all tasks to or above my expectations. These tasks include: quality checking all printed materials for Marvel that were filtered through the Publishing Manufacturing department (comic books, trade paperback books, hardcover books, posters, postcards, etc.), the distribution of said printed materials, quality reporting, sample tracking, the organization of office copies, and more. In addition to her excelling in all tasks assigned to her, Brooke is always punctual and is consistently a self-starter.

Brooke is always in a good mood and never looks disappointed, even when given the most mundane of tasks, i.e. shredding countless book proofs. She is always overjoyed to help my team and is eager to assist even though checking comics for printing errors for hours on end can get very tedious. You do not see this in all interns and it is a breath of fresh air to see such an attitude in usually gloomy New York City.

Ms. Harrison is a wonderful worker. If I were to assign Brooke a letter grade for the semester, then I would have to grant her an "A".

Feel free to let me know if you have any additional questions or concerns.

Sincerely,
